CHARLES B. NORTON will PUB-LISH THIS DAY, NORTON'S RAILROAD LI-BRARY, NO. 1.

The subscriber, in commencing a series of works under the above general title, would state that it is his intention to publish such books only as are calculated to disseminate sound and entertaining information and innocent amuse-ment, metead of the trivial and often immoral publications that are generally offered to the notice of Railroad readers. He desires to introduce a class of works at once valuable and instructive; not merely to be read in the cars, as and thrown aside at the end of the journey, but such as shall deserve a permanent place on the shelves of the library. No I. MANAND HIS MIGRATIONS; by R. D. Latham, M. D., F. R. S. 12mo, pp. 260; beards 500; cloth 750. CUIER'S NP. W OATS AND CUIER'S AND CUIER'S NP. WORLD APPLETON & CO. will publish on Tuesday—
NICARAGTA, its Peeple, Scenery, Monuments, and the proposed Inter-Oceanic Canal, with numerous original Maps and Historations, by E. G. Squier, late Charge CAffaires of the United States to the Republics of Central America. 2 vols octavo. Price $5.

This is a resot capital and timely work. Its, lively, animated spirited style, the absolute profusion of incidents and adventures which are described in its parses, and that charming manner with which so much that is agreeable, is interwoven with the instrouve and useful, render it one of the choicest works recently issued. The author, while he syreads before us all the personal adventures of his mession to Central America, imparts a rich store of information especting that country, its rivers, its present inhabitants, their political relation to England, the route to California by Lake Nicaragua, &c. &c. The volumes are embellished by a large number of finely executed plates and cuts. In a word, no work that can at all compare with this, has made its appearance since the publication of Stephens's Central America.
